I've been learning the 19 blessing of the Amida. Today, I feel like writing about the 8th request: Healing for the sick. These blessings ask God to heal anyone.

This blessing connects for my family because my dad has cancer and he has to take a lot of drugs. I feel sad when I say this prayer because of what my dad has to go through.

This blessing relates to good behavior because the doctors help my dad stay alive. I think that Jews all over the world from all branches of Judaism recite the Amidah three times a day, because ~~at~~ any time we eat a meal breakfast, lunch, and dinner, we need to talk to God so ~~between~~ ^{between} meals we can have a good time.
Also, when we go to bed, ~~the~~ dinner prayer allows us to sleep well. I've cared more about prayer after learning it because
